ALL FOR KNOT

WEDDING BELLES

You'll captivate all who watch you walk down the aisle in this wedding gown by Shannon McLean, featuring layers of ethereal English net over silk georgette. "I designed this dress to be simple and elegant with movement and grace," says McLean. "Its streamlined proportions flatter the bride from every vantage point, because that is how her guests will see her." The designer also notes that she was inspired by the glamour of old Hollywood—which she made modern with a new silhouette. It features a crossover V-neck, Empire waist, princess-seamed bodice, and a low scooped back with a long slim train. View this gown and other Shannon McLean designs firsthand in the Bridal Salon and picture yourself sharing your first toast as Mr. and Mrs.

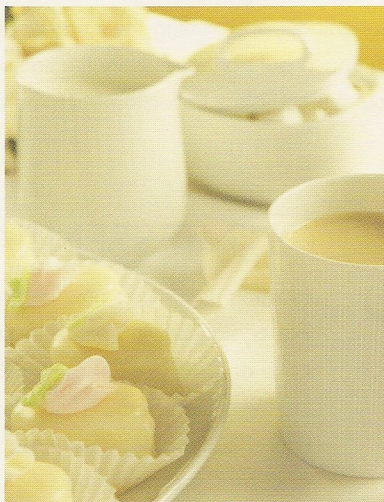

SWEET LIFE

The tradition of giving sugared almonds as wedding favors is thought to have begun in ancient Greece. It's said that the almond's bittersweet taste represents life's trials and joys, but these, with a delicious candy coating, can only convey wishes for a life of opulence and delight. See our NM Exclusive keepsake boxes filled with the treats in Epicure.

SIMPLY BEAUTIFUL

These white accessories from the Rosenthal "White on White" pattern complement the style of your occasion—elegant or casual, classic or modern, bold or understated. Everyday helpers such as a creamer and sugar take on new shapes to ensure both aesthetic appeal and durability. Stop by and see the full collection in Home Decor.

NATURAL INSTINCT

Embrace the beauty of nature in your home—minus the nuisances of the outdoors—with this butterfly-motif cake plate and dome from Arthur Court Designs in Home Decor. Made of aluminum and glass, the set is crafted and polished by hand and will be treasured for years to come.

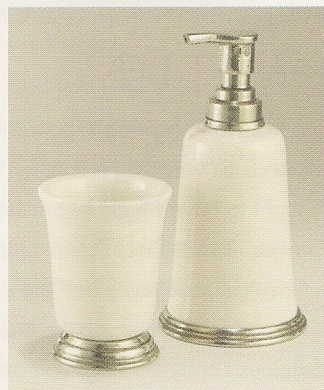

HOPELESSLY DEVOTED

Let your inner poet serenade your beloved with this Fabergé keepsake. The inside lid of the golden porcelain box reveals a message handpainted in 23-karat gold: "Hold my hand and never let it go, I have put into it all my life, my dreams, and trust, happiness I thought I'd never know, you gave me, so hold my hand until it turns to dust." Visit Home Decor and see why it's perfect for storing intimate treasures or love notes.

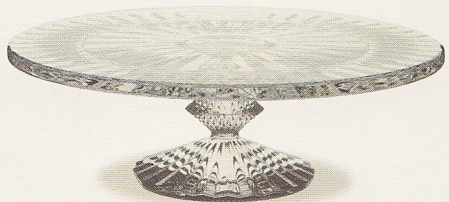

ARTFUL ADDITIONS

Strike a balance between masculine and feminine sensibilities with Arte Italica. These pewter vanity accessories, with ceramic or glass, fit harmoniously into just about any decor, making a statement without overcoming their surroundings—ideal for the couple sharing space but not necessarily the same taste. Check out the complete collection in Home Decor.

QUINTESSENTIAL CRYSTAL

Nothing epitomizes new beginnings and traditions in the making quite like crystal. Serving pieces from Baccarat will complement your wedding cake and make celebrations throughout the year more extraordinary. In Home Decor, you'll find the Mille Nuits cake knife, cake server, and crystal cake plate, which add sparkle to formal affairs and elegance to everyday entertaining.
